

FITZ HERBERT AND HEAT AT JAMAICA

NO WORSE, WIFE

Has an Afternoon of Rare Enjoyment.

Keep the Talent Busy With Dope Sheets.

JAMAICA RESULTS.

FIRST RACE-Ramble (11 to 5 place) 2. Arionette 3.

to 1 and even) 1, Aletheuo (1 to for place) 2, Black Oak 3.

BY VINCENT TREANOR.

JAMAICA ENTRIES.

JAMAICA RACE TRACK, May 2 .follows: FIRST RACE-Three-year-olds and up

FIRST RACE-Three-year-olds	and up;
selling: six rurlongs.
2003 Sir Toddington	113
- Glenham	11:5
190 Long Ball
200 Big Ben
190 Banyah	103
200 Bolf Ball
1743 He Knows	98
(200) Queen Marguerite	98
(152) Ingham	110
137* Wave Crest	102
174 Sandal	97 i
1913 Hyperion II	118
- Mexican Silver
SECOND RACE-Two-year-old	maidens:
celling; five furlongs.
- Sappho	99
- Father Stafford	108
2022 Ceremonious	104
- Nedlim	102
205 St. Withold	103
- Eustacian	90
202 Tennessee Boy	102
- Slik Hose
1998 Bluestock
195 *Shapedale
- Tarror
- Sister Phyllis	103
149 Desolate
- Get Along	99
206 *Wamboro
THIRD RACE-Three-year-old m lies and gellings; selling; one and	d one-sixteenth miles.
2072 Almandine	100
207° Twigs	100
- Aclaia	100
- Breakaway	100
- Brother Jonathan	100
163 Compare	100
207 Rosario	100
163 Flyball	100
150 *Irish Lace	95
	Control of the Contro
FOURTH RACE - Three-year-	olds: the Dunton Stakes: six furlongs.
(187) Hartford Boy
(183) Berry Maid	105
160 Question Mark	 100
(172) James B. Brady 203* Rialto	110

Crowd of 30,000 at the Track Changes in Condition During Past Few D ys Are Denied.

RAMBLE FIRST WINNER. SHE LEAVES BEDSIDE

Two Features on the Card Statement From Princeton Declares Recovery Is Slowly Progressing.

NO SUNDAY BALL PLAYING

BERMEL NOT INDICTED

Mayor McClellan was requested today by the Queens County Grand Jury. which has been investigating the Kissena Park scandal, to probe the departments and bureaus of that bor-

No indictments were found by the Humphreys. The foreman handed up a presentment in which the charge was made that there were scandals in the departments of the Queens Borough government which should be investi-

	1822 King Cobalt
	FIFTH RACE Three-year-olds and	u
	ward: selling; one hile and a sixteenth.
	210 Royal Lady 96
ı	186 Poquessing104
	201 Zethus
Н	204 1mport 94
ı	158 Cymbal
ı	198 ² Saylor
ì	198 Killiegrankie
l	188 *Chief Hayes
ł
1	SIXTH RACE—Three-year-olds and	U handicap; one mile and a sixteenth. (209) Tileing
ı	(209) Tileing
ı	198 Killiecrankie 95
ij	(208) Light Wool
1	180 Castlewood 99
	185 Colonel Jack
ı	(192) Halket
١	208 ³ Zienap
ı	182' Prince of Castile
	Also eligible:
1	- Arasee
1	2082 Berkeley 115
J	210 D'Arkle 95
1	201 Pins and Needles
1	204 Import 104
Į	*Apprentice allowance claimed.

EVENING WORLD RACE CHART FOURTH DAY AT JAMAICA.

	cather Cloud	y •				viay	2.		1 I a	C.A.	rai	•
212 Dara	FIRST RACE—Tw Post time, 2.20; mba. Owner—A. J.	orr,	2.32.	Tin	ne-0.	$700 ir. V 54 3-5	von handily. V	d a h	alf f	urlon	gs. y Ind	10-
Index	. Starters.	Wts.	St.	1/4	1/2	Fin.	Jockeys.	Op.	Hi.	·C1.	Pl.	Sh
184 922 44 64 88	Clef Von Laer Ohipmunk W. J. McLoughrey Borgne	99 103 104 103 99 102 104 94 106	4215673198	21/2 31/2 42/62/5h 57/5 92/82/	1116 234 54 50 70 82	2: 3: 4: 5: 6: 7: 8:	E. Dugan Musgrave Notter Brussel G. Swain McCarthy Shilling J. Diggins Horner		12-5 9-5 5 15 30 20 12 300 60		3-5 8-5 8-5 10 5 4 100 20	1- 1- 7-1 8-
(max.)	Lord Direct	102	10	10	10	10	W. Burns	40	100	100	40	0
prope	lamble went to the ileno ran his race, rly placed.	Arie	iette	CIOS	ed so	me g	ound. Elizabet	n sw	eeney	Will	do w
		OLL	4.110	. 31	art z	oou.	Won driving.	Wint	dded;	slx b. f	furlo	ngs
	Post time, 2.57; Splendour. Owners.	OLL	A.	Werr	berg.	Tin	Won driving.	Wini	ier,	slx b. f	furlo by	ngs D.s

DO YOU KNOW that Garibaldi first saw the girl who became his wife through a telescope from ship's deck?

More piece of chalk

Begins in Monday's EVENING WORLD

Entrancing

Than

The Romance of Love Making Begins in Monday's EVENING WORLD

HAD YOU PEAD that Franklis, first saw the future Mrs. Ben as he walked by her door, a loaf of bread under each arm?

"Circulation Books Open to All."

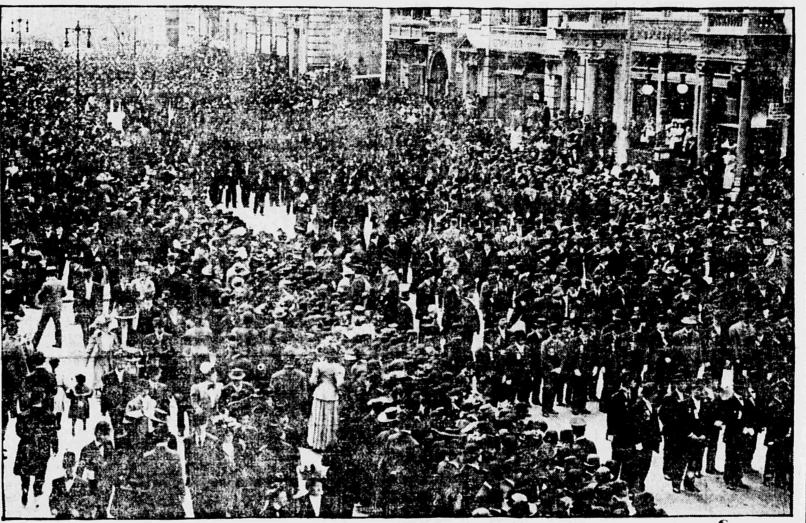

VENING EDITION

NEW YORK, SATURDAY, MAY 2, 1908.

"Circulation Books Open to All."

PRICE ONE CENT.

The Parade of Catholic Laymen To-Day CATHOLIC JUBILFE Immense Throng of Spectators Viewing

COURT DECID 5

IN KISSENA PARK PROBE. MRS. LOOKER NOT EXAMINER AT BANK SAGAN TO GIVE

Fails to Produce Evidence to Prove It.

departed triumphantly to-day from the said to-day:

Looker, who says that a year ago, while she wos in a sanitarium at Limerick, N. H., she married a Dr. Lowe, notwithstanding the fact that she had been married for two years to Looker. The husband charges that there is an

in New Hampshire. R. H. Charlton, counsel for Mrs.

indictment against her by a Grand Jury

"Find the section of the code apply- all right. "You surprise me." said the Magis- port.

DEAD, A SUICIDE

Husband Who Brought Charge But Institution, President of Refused by Rome, but Must Which Killed Himself, Is Believed to Be Sound.

Looker," Magistrate Dooley said. "The president was heavily involved in the ceremony, ase is dismissed."

New Jersey Bridge Company. I believe

Mrs. Looker was arrested last night

New Jersey Bridge Company. I believe that it will be found that Mr. McGee's there could be no religious marriage.

ARMY MAN CHOLERA VICTIM Mrs. Looker was arrested last night on complaint of her husband, Irving N. that it will be found that Mr. McGee's there could be no religious marriage, and consequently his wife would not be accepted by society. lutely free from taint."

Henry S. and James P. Terhune, representing the Stafford-Little interest in the bank, ordered it closed yesterday pending an examination. They stated that they did this to protect the depositors and prevent a run. As was said that nothing was known. Looker, asked for a dismissal on the Cashier Davidson declared that to the gound of no evidence, but this was opposed by James Robson, counsel for Looker.

Looker.

Wellow the section of the code apply.

"I want this man Eilberin stopped from ing in which its business was con- wards from cirrhosis of the liver. interfering in this case. He's always ducted. The deposits amounted to several times the surplus at the last re-

"I asked him a question and he In addition to his worry over the afanswered it like a gentleman."

And when he found the section he read it to Mr. Robson, who therepands the pany, Mr. McGee is also said to have shown much anxiety about the health rounds of his watch, Charles M. Beck.

UP RELIGION TO WED ANNA GOULD

Have a Church Ceremony to Be Accepted by Society.

young woman who has enjoyed a good corporations in which he was inter-difficulties in the way of a marriage deal of notoriety lately because of her ested, are now known to have im- between Prince Helle de Sagan and troubles with her husband, gathered pelled Morgan Delancey McGee, presitively the skirts of her pretty spring frock dent of the First National Bank, of the Catholic Church, not recognizing

The Prince de Sagan is determined to marry Madame Gould, and to this end he has decided to turn Protestant.

He married Wanda won Strombeck in Berlin last November. The Baron was thirty-five years departed triumphantly to-day from the Adams Street Court, in Brooklyn.

Where she was charged with bigamy.

"I find no evidence against Mrs.

"If the Prince de Sagan is determined to marry Madame Gould, and to this far nothing irregular has been discorted in Mr. McGee's management. The by both a civil and religious marriage old and his

BROOKLYN MAN DIES SUDDENLY IN VIRGINIA.

(Special to The Evening World.) NORFOLK, Va., May 2.-William Heath Lyons, a wealthy man of Brooklyn, N. Y., died suddenly last night at Lyons attended the theatre in Norfolk ing in this case for me," said Magistrate Doolev to Court Clerk Eilberin.
"I protest," said the persistent Robson.
"I protest," said the persistent Robson. The deceased was a brother of Dr. Seth Thayer Stewart, of New York upon became more peevish than ever of his seventeen-year-old son Roger, a policeman, was shot through the neart and wanted a warrant for Mrs. Looker's arrest on a charge of being a fugitive who recently had to undergo surgical treatment. His friends believe that his troubles had temporarily unhinged his mind and caused him to take his life. Busides the son he leaves a widow and or any evidence of any kind, and he similarly left, which he had crawled in pursuit of a burglar early to-day. Beck had found a window pried from its fastenings and two daughters, Mrs. Carl Wynooop, of any left, which he had crawled in pursuit of a burglar early to-day. Beck had found a window pried from its fastenings and two daughters, Mrs. Carl Wynooop, of Atlanta, Ga. and Miss Gladys Mages, wenty years old.

BARONESS KILLS HER HUSBAND AND SHOOTS HERSELF

in Berlin Only Last November—Tragedy a Mystery.

BERLIN, May 2.-Baroness Udo von Ruexleben shot and killed her husband where Inspector Russell managed to Dortmund, last night just as he was but the self-inflicted wound was not about her, tossed the plumes of her Manasquan, N. J., to self-destruction, three-and-a-half-foot diameter hat and Cashier Davidson, of the First National.

Gould's first marriage.

the Catholic Church, not recognizing divorce, has refused to annul Madame day.

No explanation has been made of the widow is twenty-six.

IN THE PHILIPPINES.

WASHINGTON, May 2.-Private Wiliam F. McGue, Company C, First Battalion of Engineers, died of Asiatic cholera at Camp Correll, in Samar, on April 22. Sa far as known at the War Department, there has been no other case of cholera in the army in the Phil-ippines for several months past.

A Giant or a Dwarf?

Which of these two individuals would you rather call upon for assistance if you were in need of human aid.

The GIANT of the advertising kingdom is THE WORLD, which carries advertisements into more New York City homes and offices daily than can be reached through ANY TWO OTHER morning newspapers COMBINED.

Two Times as Many as Can Be Reached Through Any Other One. LET A SUNDAY WORLD AD. HELP YOU TO-MORROW.

PARADE HAD 50,000 MARCHERS IN Major-Gen. Barry, as Grand Marshal, Heads Marching Laymen of Diocese in Final Event of Centennial Week Festivities.

VISITING PRELATES AND PRIESTS REVIEW PROCESSION.

Every Church and Catholic Society in the City Represented in the Greatest Demonstration of Its Kind Ever Seen in New York City.

The greatest parade of a religious nature in the history of this country and the greatest crowd that has gathered in Central Manhattan since the dedication of Grant's tomb marked the close this afternoon of the Roman Catholic Centennary celebration. The clouds in the sky and the fresh breeze served to inspire the paraders with life and movement, and the line of 50,000 or more men passed the grand stand with remarkable celerity.

asion were few and unimportant. A lance stations, one gat Twenty-sixth alling, against which a score of people street and the other at Fiftieth street. railing, against which a score of people were leaning, opposite the Cathedral, ways and dropped them into the gave way, and dropped them into the Von Ruexiebens Were Married Mills. No one was injured, 'A man was knocked down and run over by Inspector Schmittberger's horse and runabout at Twenty-fifth street and Fifth avenue, but escaped serious hurts.

The police arrangements were eccllent all along the line with the exception of the Fourteenth street crossing, where Inspector Russell managed to the Old Guard Band and drum corps, get everything confused for the first for instance, turned out 500 men in

OUTLIVED USEFULNESS; ENDS LIFE WITH BULLET.

Abraham L. Smith a Suicide Because He Considered Himself

Because he considered himself a burden on his son. Abraham Latham disbanded. Smith shot and killed himself early today in his bedroom in an apartment city controlled by Catholics closed at at No. 2299 Seventh avenue. The body was found by Annie Pott, a servant were givn a holiday, and Catholic mail who went to the flat after the son, downtown.

The old man had shot himself in the right temple and a doctor said he had been dead for an hour or two. He left a letter to his son in which he said he had ogtilved his usefulness and didn't want to be a burden to the young man. He gave the son a great deal of advice as to an upright life and quoted liberally from the Bible.

LUMBER FIRM BANKRUPT.

loard of Directors of Tyler Com-Petitions in bankruptcy were filed to-lay with the clerk of the United States District Court as follows: Involuntary petition against the Tyler umber Company, No. 111 Broadway, by William H. Lynn, Westchester, N.

y.; Alice Hawley Truax, No. 43 Fifth avenue, and Margaret M. Reilly, No. Madison avenue.

The Lynn and Truax claims are each for $2.875 and the Reilly claim is for $450. The pettition alleges that the Board of Directors on April 30 admitted that the corporation was unable to pay its debts, and expressed their willingness to be adjugged bank-

The accidents attendant upon the oc- half hour. There were two ambuafter dark before the last in line passed the reviewing stand. Thousands of Cadets in Line

There were thousands of cadets in blue and gray uniforms and whole di-visions of members of the Ancient Order of Hibernians and Knights of Columbus in regalia. San Salvador Council. No. 174, Knights of Columbus, with new uniforms, who went through various intricate drill movements all along the line of march under com-mand of Col. T. J. Sullivan. It is safe to say that every Catholic in New York who could reach the vicirity of the parade was on hand as a marcher or a spectator. They lined the curbs, hundreds of thousands of them, and banked at the start and finish in such numbers that the police had hard work in getting the parade started and

About every business house in the carriers and postal clerks were allowed Ward Smith, had left for his business to take part in the parade as far as

Grand Stand for 3,500.

Banked across the front of the Cathedral, between Fiftieth and Fifty-first streets, was an immense grand stand, capable of accommodating 3,500 persons. Down in the middle of this stand a church dignitaries, who wore their brilliant robes of office. The rest of the stand was given over entriely to women and children, with here and there a priest his sombre garb of black standing out strongly against the mass coloring of gowns and hats. Of the thousands who took part in e parade every man was afoot but ne-Gen. Thomas Barry, the grand marshal. When he reached the grand and be dismounted and took his place ith Cardinal Logue, Archbishop Farey and the other prelates who formed ne reviewing party. Many Young Men In Line. Through the long line of march milonaires rubbed shoulders with laborers, hod-carriers marched side by side with merchants, scholars and editors tramped along with contractors and